Iranian Handicrafts Training

About Course

Experience the pleasure of learning Iranian handicrafts

Welcome to Daneshpajooan Pishro Higher Education Institute (DHEI) Summer School "Iranian Handicrafts Training"! This summer we will open our doors for the first workshops about the wonders of Iranian art.

In this summer school, acquaintance with four fields of Iranian art, including Painting on Pottery, Engraving, Carpet and Glim weaving and Needlework, is offered to those interested, and a practical workshop for any of the arts will be held based on the selection of participants.

Needlework is one of the Iranian handicrafts that is done with thread and needle on fabric. So that on the surface of plain fabrics, designs are drawn with colored threads. This is done with the help of needles and hooks and delicate stitches are sewn on the fabric. Needlework is usually done on linen fabrics, but sometimes silk fabrics are used for this purpose.

Carpet is the most famous and valuable Iranian art. Woven handicrafts with various colored patterns that are woven in vertical poles with the tools of hooks, Dafeh, Koji, combs, scissors and spatulas and wool and silk.

Glim, a flat tapestry-woven carpet or rug, is made from hand-woven yarn (cotton or wool) and weft (wool) that is usually woven from the wool of domestic animals. Glim weaving tools include hanger, comb, scissors and knife, and a map.

Engraving is the process of decorating and carving patterns on metal objects, especially copper, gold, silver, brass, or in other words, creating lines and patterns with a pen and hammer on metal objects. This art is done with tools such as pens, engraving hammers and ruler straps.

Pottery is one of the oldest industries that is produced in Iran. The most important development in the pottery industry is the creation of paintings on pottery. Tools needed for painting on pottery include vases or any pottery object, are gold acrylic paint, wood glue, aluminum foil, brush, gold remover and spray fixing paint on pottery.
