7. Travel Information

7.1 Weather

December is winter season in Beijing, China. The weather here is usually dry and cold with average temperature ranging from -6°C to 3 °C. Weather cast said it would be much snow this year. Weather forecast is available at <http://www.weather.com.cn/weather/101010100.shtml>

7.2 Electricity

The electricity supply in China is 220V/50Hz. The wall socket matches two-pin plug (round) and three-pin plug (two angled flat pins and the ground pin). Make sure you take the adapter with you if needed.

7.3 Medical Insurance

It is highly advised that participating teams should purchase suitable travel and medical insurance in their own country before your trip. The organizers will not be responsible for any medical expenses incurred by the students and teachers in the “Belt and Road” Teenager Maker Camp and Teacher Workshop period. You are also kindly advised to take along with necessary medicine for personal care.

7.4 Smoking and Alcoholic Beverage

Smoking is prohibited in all indoor areas of workplaces, public places, restaurants, bars for all ages, as well as some outdoor areas such as escalators, public pleasure grounds, beaches etc.

Underage drinking is prohibited at any occasions during the “Belt and Road” Teenager Maker Camp and Teacher Workshop. Minors under the age 18 are not allowed to consume alcoholic beverage in line with China’s law.

7.5 Currency

The currency in China is RMB (¥). We recommend you get some RMB in your country before you leave for China. Or you can exchange the money at the airport or local banks when you arrive. Credit Card is also available in Beijing.

7.6 Dress code

There’s no strict dress code for the contest. Casual wear is encouraged most of time; however you need to dress smartly for the opening and award ceremony.
